What a blessed Sabbath when visitors join us! May your time with us bring you closer to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We look forward to a return visit.

Special Prayer: Please remember our Pathfinders as they travel to Rockford, Illinois for the Pathfinder Bible Experience. May they do well with the program and be safe on the roads.

Adult Singles: Meet immediately after you have eaten your sack lunch to go Birding. Questions: check with Sharon Isaac or Teri Tipton.

Church Softball Game on Sunday May 5. Plan to join your church family for an afternoon of fun, food, and fellowship. All ages and skill levels are encouraged to participate. Bring picnic themed food to share for a potluck lunch at 12 noon. Softball and wiffle ball games begin at 1:00 pm on our school ball field.

Book of the Month: "If this church were to close its doors, would anybody in this community notice? Would anybody in this community care?" Ask yourself this question. In the book by Sung Kwon, "Burst the Bubble," we are challenged with the fundamental thoughts "Are we being a good neighbor? Are we being a neighbor to all people all the time - not just on Sabbath morning?" To learn more about how to be a good neighbor, get a copy of "Burst the Bubble." Check with Ken Stubbs or www.adventistbookcenter.com and don't forget to use the code 44090.

Eye Wear: We are collecting prescription and/or non-prescription eye wear, adults and children's sizes. The glasses will be recycled or donated to someone who is visually and financially impaired. The collection box is on the Personal Ministries Counter.

Church Potluck: Plan to enjoy lunch with church friends next Sabbath at our All Church Potluck. Bring your favorite spring potluck food to share.

The Saladino family is very appreciative for all the meals provided this month.

BibleStudyOffer.com: A variety of free promotional materials and more information is available on the Personal Ministries counter in the east hall.

"In Christ is life, original, unborrowed, underived. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' 1 John 5:12. The divinity of Christ is the believer's assurance of eternal life. 'He that believeth in Me,' said Jesus, 'though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. Believest thou this?' Christ here looks forward to the time of His second coming. Then the righteous dead shall be raised incorruptible, and the living righteous shall be translated to heaven without seeing death. The miracle which Christ was about to perform, in raising Lazarus from the dead, would represent the resurrection of all the righteous dead. By His word and His works He declared Himself the Author of the resurrection. He who Himself was soon to die upon the cross stood with the keys of death, a conqueror of the grave, and asserted His right and power to give eternal life."
