A TESTING TIME RELIGIOUS LIBERTY: Send Liberty Magazine to judges who wonder about justice. Encourage liberty service. Defend those who are bruised. Pray for those already before councils and “kings.”

OFFERING JANUARY 23, 2021

Your Religious Liberty Offering will sponsor Liberty magazine subscriptions to high-level government officials, federal, state, and provincial judges, and prominent social and religious leaders throughout North America. Your generous gift will also be used to support the North American Division litigation fund—resources needed to defend and preserve your religious liberty in court when necessary. And a portion of your offering is returned to your local union to aid in religious liberty promotion and education.

“We are not doing the will of God if we sit in silence, doing nothing to preserve liberty of conscience. Fervent, effectual prayer should be ascending to heaven that this calamity may be deferred until we can accomplish the work which has so long been neglected. Let there be the most earnest prayer and then let us work in harmony with our prayers.” (Ellen G. White, Testimonies for the Church, vol. 5, p. 714; written in 1889, months after a national Sunday law had been introduced before the U.S. Congress to much public acclaim. Adventists and a few others spoke up resolutely, and the crisis was averted.)

THREE EASY WAYS TO CONTRIBUTE: (1) Use the attached Freedom Bond to submit your financial commitment. Place the Bond with check or bills enclosed during the offering time. (2) Visit our website www.libertymagazine.org/donations and give securely online. (3) Call (800) 456-3991 to have a customer service representative assist you with the process.

Adventurers: There will not be any meetings in February. Next meetings will be March 6 and 7. March 6, weather permitting, we will go on a hike at DeGraaf Nature Center. The whole church family is invited to join us. We will have a short devotional in the parking lot at 2:00 and begin our hike after. Please bring binoculars along to see what we find.

“I know that in many hearts the inquiry arises, ‘Where shall I find Jesus?’ There are many who want His presence, want His love and His light; but they know not where to look for Him for whom their hearts yearn. And yet Jesus does not hide Himself away; no one need search for Him in vain. ‘Behold,’ He says, ‘I stand at the door, and knock. If any man hear My voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me.’ Jesus invites us to accept His presence; we are to open the door of the heart, and let Him in. But He will not share a divided heart. If it be given to the service of mammon, if selfishness and pride fill its chambers, there will be no room for the Heavenly Guest; He will not take up His abode with us until the soul-temple has been emptied and cleansed. Yet there is no need of making a failure in the Christian life. Jesus is waiting to do a great work for us, and all heaven is interested in our salvation.” (Ellen White, Review and Herald, November 24, 1885)
