ANNOUNCEMENTS, Continued

What a blessed Sabbath when visitors join us! May your time with us bring you closer to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We look forward to a return visit.

Food Truck: Our Food Truck continues to be scheduled for the first Monday of each month. We appreciate the support of our volunteers as we reach out to our community. Please keep this ministry in your prayers and on your calendar to participate.

Senior Citizens: You are invited to join a member-to-member outreach for the Holland Seventh-day Adventist Church for those who are 65 and over. A volunteer will call the members who request it, for a short devotional and prayer on a weekly basis. If this ministry could benefit you or someone you know, call the church office at 616-355-2877. Please leave your name, phone number.

Adventurers: There will not be any meetings in February. Next meetings will be March 6 and 7. March 6, weather permitting, we will go on a hike at DeGraaf Nature Center. The whole church family is invited to join us. We will have a short devotional in the parking lot at 2:00 and begin our hike after. Please bring binoculars along to see what we find.

Pathfinders: This month’s evening meeting has been changed to Thursday, February 18th at 5:30 pm. Please wear field uniforms and bring your AY and Bibles.

The March 6 meeting will be at 2:00 pm. Please bring AY and Bibles. March 7th regular meeting will be 9:00 to 12:15. Please wear field uniforms and bring AY and Bibles.

Congratulations to Jeff and Ashley Weber on the birth of their son! Nathaniel James was born on January 20 and weighed 9 pounds 3 ounces.

Hope for the Ignorant Sinner

And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. Jer. 29:13.

In Romans 3, Paul says there are people who are inescapably lost in their inability to seek God. In fact, he said, “There is none that seeketh after God” (verse 11). If we will seek Him, we’ll find Him when we have searched for Him with all our hearts, but none seeketh after God. Then where does the seeking begin? We are supposed to seek, but none seek.

“If a woman has ten silver pieces and loses one of them, does she not light a lamp, sweep out the house, look in every corner till she has found it? And when she has, she calls her friends and neighbors together, and says, “Rejoice with me! I have found the piece that I lost.” In the same way, I tell you, there is joy among the angels of God over one sinner who repents” (Luke 15:8-10, N.E.B.)

In this story Jesus is telling us, through the symbol of the coin, that it is possible to be lost and not to know that we are lost, and not to know the way back. And the One goes out and looks for this lost coin. In the lost-coin symbol, it was lost in the house instead of out in the mountains somewhere, and perhaps we could go so far as to say it was lost within the church. Or lost in the family. And it’s lost among the rubbish and the rubble of an ancient Middle East dwelling, but the search continues because it is still a piece of silver. It’s still of value, and the value of one soul can never be overestimated in the eyes of Heaven.

“And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me . . . “ How? “With all your heart.” “With all your heart.”

It is the sense of need that makes the difference. It is the great finding point. It is the point when we find Christ and the point when Christ finds us. “The Lord can do nothing toward the recovery of man until, convinced of his own weakness, and stripped of all self-sufficiency, he yields himself to the control of God. Then he can receive the gift that God is waiting to bestow.” (The Desire of Ages, p. 300) Faith that Works, Morris Venden.

"We should accustom ourselves to speak in pleasant tones, to use pure and correct language, and words that are kind and courteous. Sweet, kind words are as dew and gentle showers to the soul. The Scripture says of Christ that grace was poured into His lips that He might 'know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary.' Ps. 45:2; Isa. 50:4. And the Lord bids us, 'Let your speech be alway with grace' (Col. 4:6) 'that it may minister grace unto the hearers' "(Eph. 4:29). (Ellen White, Christ's Object Lessons, p. 336)
