ANNOUNCEMENTS, Continued

What a blessed Sabbath when visitors join us! May your time with us bring you closer to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We look forward to a return visit.

Pathfinders: April 17 - Pathfinder Sabbath

April 18, 9:30 - 12:15 - Regular Meeting

April 30, 7:00 - Investiture

Adventurers: We will meet next Sabbath, April 10. Please wear dress uniforms, and bring a picnic lunch for your own family. We hope to use the gazebo, weather permitting. No outdoor event planned for next week, as we need to finish our AY classwork to be ready for Investiture, April 30. Sunday, April 11 we will meet in the fellowship room, then move our meeting outdoors to learn about Gardening. Bring “get dirty” clothes and gloves, also small garden tools if you have them. Looking ahead: Adventurer Fun Day will be held at Camp Au Sable, May 23. If you would like to camp there for the weekend (Primitive North Woods camping), please contact Paula ASAP for your reservation.

Book of the Month: The books of Daniel and Revelation are more than historical data and facts - much more. From beginning to end, they show the hand of God in human affairs and portray Jesus Christ as the answer to the problems and challenges we face today. Author Mark Finley brings out these points and more in the Pacific Press Book of the Month entitled Understanding Daniel and Revelation. To obtain a copy go to adventistbookcenter.com and don't forget our church code of 44090 or see Ken Stubbs. The price has been reduced for April.

Prayer Meeting is Tuesday evening by Zoom. The Zoom access code is sent out on Tuesday, so watch your email. The weekly reading is included in the announcements.

ASME Grab ‘N Go Luncheon: April 24, 12:30 pm, bring your sandwiches and your favorite side dishes. Also bring a chair and enjoy friends and a relaxing walk.

Troubled About Many Things

Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you.
1 Peter 5:7

“Now it came to pass, as they went, that He entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received Him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus’ feet, and heard His word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to Him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? Bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: but one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her” (Luke 10:38-42).

What would you do if you heard that Jesus was in town? Where would you be? Would you be sleeping on the sidewalk in front of wherever He was going to appear, or would you be on your way out of town?

Martha made certain that Jesus received an invitation to her house. And then she left Him sitting in the living room and went out to the kitchen, to do what Martha types do out in the kitchen. But you see here that Martha’s concern was not just about the kitchen, and Mary helping, for she was troubled about many things. She was troubled about everything. When Jesus gently rebuked her, He wasn’t simply talking about the kitchen and the pots and pans. He was talking about a way of life for Martha. Martha was a good girl. She wouldn’t think of doing anything wrong. Probably the worst thing she ever did was chew her fingernails when the mixer didn’t work.

Often good people feel that they don’t need Jesus. They can get along fine being religious. But that thoughtful hour alone with Jesus every day is not something we do in addition to being Christians. It is the entire basis of the Christian life. Those who don’t know what that is are invariably going to be careful and troubled about many things. There is only one way to victory and peace in the Christian life. Do you know what it is to sit at Jesus’ feet, today, tomorrow, and every day until Jesus comes?

“If the Lord had not been my help, My soul would soon have dwelt in the abode of silence. If I should say, 'My foot has slipped,' Your lovingkindness, O Lord, will hold me up. When my anxious thoughts multiply within me, Your consolations delight my soul. Can a throne of destruction be allied with You, one which devises mischief by decree? They band themselves together against the life of the righteous and condemn the innocent to death. But the Lord has been my stronghold, and my God the rock of my refuge.” (Psalm 94:17–22 NASB)
